

Consultants

We are experiencing exciting growth and are looking for new Consultants to join our exceptional team.

With offices based in the countryside around the beautiful city of Bath and working with clients internationally, Achieve Breakthrough offers hybrid working and opportunities for career progression and global travel.

As a Consultant, you will develop credibility and effective relationships with clients, understand their needs and sell, design and deliver bespoke interventions including workshops, coaching and consulting programmes that will enable them to achieve lasting, transformational results. Working in close partnership with the account managers, you will ensure clients have a seamless experience of Achieve Breakthrough.

The ideal candidate will be able to deliver first class training to large groups of people, virtually or in person and have a natural aptitude for communication and collaboration.

In addition to client delivery, you'll also get involved in the design of new products that expand our portfolio of client offerings and mentor more junior members of the team within your client accounts.

Our team of consultants receive extensive training in our methodologies, tools and techniques but each brings a unique set of skills and experience to the role.
